DESCRIPTION:

Occupying a prime location on the shores of Loch Ryan towards the eastern perimeter of Stranraer, this is an extremely well proportioned semi-detached villa which provides excellent family accommodation on two floors.

There are spectacular and uninterrupted views over the waters of Loch Ryan and beyond.

Of timber frame construction under a tiled and felt roof the property is set within its own area of garden ground. The property has undergone a programme of modernisation to include new central heating boiler, full re-wire, new kitchen and new bathroom. It also benefits from full double glazing and gas fired central heating.

The property is situated adjacent to other private residential units of varying style and is accessed from an entrance driveway on Lochview Road.

Local amenities within the immediate area include access to primary/secondary schooling, Loch Ryan shore, general store and restaurant. All major amenities including supermarkets, healthcare and indoor leisure pool complex are to be found in and around the town centre approximately 1 mile distant.

Seldom does the opportunity arise to acquire a sea front property with such spectacular views and early viewing is to be recommended.
